Item # 7a:

In addition to my unsalaried position as Business Agent for IBEW Local 3, representing 300 employees, I am a New York State Assemblyman, a part-time position. Contributions to the Committee to Elect Brian McLaughlin, a separate political committee with Peter Manno as Treasurer, were made and reported to the New York State Board of Elections. Attached is a copy of the Committee's Schedule B for the July 2004 and January 2005 filings for corporate contributions to the New York State Board of Elections. I am not involved in the processing of the contributions made to the Committee. Contributions were made to the Committee by many companies.

Item # 11a:

In addition to my previous response, occasionally providers of services for IBEW, Local 3 or the trusts will invite me to business receptions, lunch and/or dinner meetings or other events. Sometimes my schedule permits me to attend. More frequently, I pass along the invitation(s) to others. I have no records of the number of such invitations I received or the number of events I actually attended. I do not have any records of the individuals to whom I pass the invitations, but I can say that on many occasions the invitations go to rank and file members rather than union officers. Also, I have no way of determining the monetary value of any of the above items. I can say, as a general matter, that I eat very little at the various receptions, events and meetings I attend.

Item # 13a:

In addition to the above responses, I am the President of the New York City Central Labor Council, as well as a New York State Assemblyman. In connection with those roles, I am invited to and sometimes attend various business receptions, lunch and dinner meetings, conferences and other events for which the New York City Central Labor Council provides payment in the vast majority of instances. These receptions, meetings, conferences and events are unconnected with my role as Business Agent with Local 3 and they represent the vast majority of the functions to which I am invited. Sometimes my schedule permits me to attend. More frequently, I pass along the invitation(s) to others. I have no records of the number of such invitations I received or the number of events I actually attended. I do not have any records of the individuals to whom I pass the invitations, but I can say that on many occasions the invitations go to either members of the New York City Central Labor Council or rank and file members of those unions rather than union officers. Also, other than what is listed below, I have no way of determining the monetary value of any of the above items. I can say, as a general matter, that I eat very little at the various receptions, events, conferences and meetings I attend.

Colleran, O'Hara & Mills is the law firm representing the New York City Central Labor Council, of which I am President. I attended the Colleran, O'Hara & Mills Golf Outing in August 2004. They gave out fleece jackets to all who attended. The Outing included dinner, which I did not attend. I estimate that the value of the golf and the fleece jacket are worth $150. I also attended the Christmas Party, but I consumed far less than $25.00 worth of food and drink.
